

RUTGERS

New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION
BURLINGTON COUNTY

“Lunch-and-Learn” Webinar Series

Rutgers Cooperative Extension Homesteading Academy presents...

Lunchtime lessons for anyone interested in home-grown sustenance! Make us your lunch date on the 2nd Tuesday of each month and look forward to future lessons on seed saving, ponds, fruit and nut crops, agroforestry, pasture, buying a tractor, practices for season extension, food preservation, and much more!

Introduction to Solar Photovoltaic Systems:
Feasibility and Economics

Tuesday, April 12, 2022

John Hay
Extension Educator in Energy,
University of Nebraska –
Lincoln

Preventative Practices to Support the Health of Small-Scale Poultry

Tuesday, May 10, 2022

Dr. Linda Detwiler
Field Veterinary Medical Officer, USDA-APHIS VS, New Jersey

Maintaining a Water Quality Friendly
Homestead

Tuesday, June 14, 2022

Bill Bamka
Agricultural Agent, Rutgers
NJAES, Cooperative Extension of Burlington County

Registration required! Register at <https://go.rutgers.edu/homesteading>
for the Zoom link

Webinar recordings will be available at <https://njaes.rutgers.edu/homesteading-academy/>

Have a question or topic idea?
Contact Kate Brown, Program Associate with RCE-Burlington County.

Phone: (609)265-5050
Email: kbrown@njaes.rutgers.edu